Generation No. 1

I. WILLIAM HENRY<sup>1</sup> LEWIS was born May 31, 1829 in Merthyr, Tydfil, Glamorgan, Wales, and died November 06, 1889 in Coal Twp, Perry Co., OH. He married (1) ELIZABETH THOMAS August 19, 1854 in Tallmadge, Summit Co., OH, daughter of JOHN THOMAS and RACHEL LEWIS. She was born April 25, 1834 in Pontnewynydd, Monmouthshire, Wales, and died February 23, 1865 in Tallmadge, Summit Co., OH. He married (2) WINNEFRED H. MORGAN October 17, 1869 in Portage Co., OH, daughter of JOHN MORGAN and SARA DAVIS. She was born Abt. 1840 in Portage Co., OH, and died July 17, 1893.

Cause of Death: Dropsey of the heart

Census2: 1860, Ohio, Summit Co., Tallmadge

Occupation: Coal Miner

Notes for ELIZABETH THOMAS:

Mother and Father of foreign birth, per 1870 census, Ohio, Summit Co., Tallmadge

After some conversation with Judy Davis, who so kindly helped me with some Summit County research, I believe that the Elizabeth Thomas who is the child of John and Rachel Lewis Thomas is the same Elizabeth Thomas who married William Henry Lewis. This is strictly an ASSUMPTION and has not been proven yet.

Census2: 1870, Ohio, Summit Co., Tallmadge Twp.

Winnefred's parents, John Morgan and Sarah Davis, were married 22 Jan 1834 in Portage Co. Winifred and William Lewis were married in Portage Co. 17 Oct 1869. Winifred is buried with her parents and a brother who died as an infant in North Cemetery, Palmyra Twp., Portage Co. According to the marker inscriptions, John Morgan died Apr 1882 at age 83; "Sara" died 4 June 1872 at age 66 yrs 3 mos; "Winnefred's" inscription reads 1840-1893. I also found a couple of write-ups in county histories about her father John and her brother John. The latter says "Winnifred, married to William Lewis, died July 17, 1893, when fifty-three years old".

ii. BENJAMIN LEWIS, b. Abt. 1857, Summit Co., OH; d. November 12, 1860, Tallmadge, Summit Co., OH.

Notes for BENJAMIN LEWIS:

The lot book records for the Tallmadge Cemetery indicate that Elizabeth Lewis along with a son named John (in grave 4), was buried in grave 5 of lot 213. They are identified as the wife & son of Wm. H. Lewis. There is no marker still existing in the cemetery. Bronson does note that a 3 yr old child with the surname Lewis died November 12, 1860...this is very likely their son Benjamin who is listed in the 1860 census.

2. THOMAS HENRY2 LEWIS (WILLIAM HENRY1) was born April 05, 1862 in Summit County, Tallmadge OH, and died February 23, 1928 in Rosefarm OH. He married JANE ANNE SIMPSON August 31, 1889, daughter of EDWARD SIMPSON and JENNETTE NORTH. She was born April 21, 1870 in Dipton England, and died May 18, 1933 in Rosefarm OH.

Notes for THOMAS HENRY LEWIS:

Thomas H. Lewis, son of William and Winifred Morgan Lewis was born April 5, 1862 at Tallmadge Ohio and died at his home in Rose Farm Ohio February 23, 1928. Aged 65 years, 10 months, 18 days.

He was married to Jane Simpson Aug 30, 1889. To this union, 8 children were born. Two children, Robert, aged 32 years, and an infant daughter, Mabel, preceded their father in death.

Those left to cherish his memory are his widow, five sons, Fred & Albert of Rose Farm, Edward & Harry of Chicago, Walter of the home, and one daughter, Mrs. Paul C. (Dorothy) Ebert, of the home. One sister, Mrs. Sarah Papke (the only surviving member of his father's family) and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Lewis was especially fond of children and his grandchildren were a special delight to him.

Held in high regard and esteem in the community where he has so long resided, and being deliberate and broad minded, his judgment was always sought in the affairs of the community. For many years he served as a member of the board of education and trustee for York Township.

A more faithful husband, a more loving father than Mr. Lewis could not be found. His home was a hallowed place where he, in his kind and gentle manner had sweet communion with his loved ones.

Years ago, he became a member of the Rose Farm Church of Christ. He was elected a deacon and named chairman of the church board which office he held until his death. Always faithful in every church obligation, he was found in the church whenever his health permitted.

The friendly greeting, the warm handclasp, and the many deeds of kindness will long be cherished by his family and friends.

Sunset and evening star,

And one clear call for me

And may there be no moaning atn-bar

When I put out to sea.

November 28th, 1927

Dear Son,

It is with pleasure I answer your letter and glad to hear you are alright and to hear you have got plenty of work. The Boys are looking every place for work. Everything is bad. They cannot get anything. Harry and is wife went to Zanesville Sunday to see 'bout work. I have not heard from them yet. I was sorry Harry could not work out there.

Fred was over and he told me to tell you he has not got that shirt pattern.

Everybody is getting out of Rosefarm. Dorothy and Paul are thinking of going up to Newark with Violet on Sunday to see if they can get work.

Peggy went away Saturday and I sure was glad. She is just the same old Peggy. She wanted to fuss all the time. We had a good fuss and she cried and threw up to me because she gave me $5 a week. I did not ask her to pay me anything. But I took it just the same and I hope it will be a long time before she visits me again. I was sorry things was so unpleasant for you as they were when you was at home. Hope she never will be here again when you are here.

Well I guess I will tell you about Fred got a 'coon and he weighed about 18 pounds. He sure was pretty. Peggy wanted it and he told her she could have his hide for 14 dollars. He is holding it for her. She's looking to see what it will cost her to have it tanned.

We was all up to Fred's for Thanksgiving dinner. There were 30 for dinner and supper and we sure had a good time. Hope you got to go hunting and had a good time. The Boys went hunting and Harry got 12. Tibby got 4 with a club. (This I am assuming refers to rabbits?) He says he cannot buy shells so he just clubs them to death and is making a cradle for Dona and it sure is pretty. It will be a poor Christmas for everybody in the coal field. They are all talking and I do not write very good. But I guess you can read this so I will close with love from Mother and Da. I was sorry about that letter. It was at the office for a week.

Notes for JANE ANNE SIMPSON:

Jane Ann, the daughter of Edward and Jean North Simpson was born on April 22, 1870 in County Durham Dipton England.

At the age of eight she, with her parents, came to America to live. Here, August 31, 1889, she was married to Thomas Lewis. This union was blessed with eight children. Two children, an infant daughter, Mabel, a son Robert, and her husband preceded her in death.

Five sons, Fred & Albert of Rose Farm, Edward of Chicago Illinois, Harry & Walter of the home, and her only daughter, Mrs. Paul C. (Dorothy) Ebert of the home, hold their mother in loving memory. Three sisters, Mrs. Arch Allen & Mrs. Mary Plummer of Zanesville & Mrs. A. J. Flood of Rose Farm and two brothers, Edward Simpson of Rose Farm and Thomas Simpson of Clinton Indiana together with 12 grandchildren survive her.

She was a member of the Starlight Chapter of Eastern Star. With her husband, she was a charter member of the Rose Farm Church of Christ. And was always faithful in her support and attendance as long as her health permitted.

The Lewis home was a hospitable one. Always open to friends and strangers. Many were the acts of kindness bestowed upon those less fortunate by this unassuming and kindly woman.

Her devotion to her family was unlimited. This devotion was mutual, for six sons and a devoted daughter where always mindful of her pleasure and comfort.

Mrs. Lewis was all the word "Mother" implies. She had a gentle speech and a personal charm that suggested a good and noble woman.

Three words fall sweetly on my ear,

As music from an angel lyre,

That bid my spirit spurn control

And upward to its source aspire -

The sweetest sounds to mortals given:

Are heard in Mother, Home & Heaven

(Obituary written by Dorothy Lewis Ebert)

My dear mother,

I received your letter and was sure glad to get it for I was feeling pretty blue but now that is all changed. I never felt better in my life. We have some hard times and get into some tight places, but altogether it is not so bad. You spoke of Eddie going to camp (boot camp). Don't let that worry you for the war is going to end before you think it is. By the time you get this, you will read in the papers about what the Americans are doing, so hope for the best. I got a picture of Marjorie; she sure is a dandy kid. She soon will be calling you grandma won't she? I bet Banjo (Frederick) has got some boy by this time. His uncle Bob will be home and don't you forget that. Give my love to all and tell old G Spicer that we are going to get the Kaisers scalps!

Your loving son

Robert

Hello Ed,

I received your letter along with the rest but am looking for more. We either get no mail or we get a whole bunch at one time. We are having pretty chilly weather over here now but that makes no difference to the Americans. The French think they are the best ever. When I wrote yesterday, the Hun shells were squealing over my head and hitting in a French village behind us but the boys made a big advance and now we can hardly hear the guns. We really don't know as much about what is going on as you do except on this one front, but if there is as much activity on the other fronts as there is on this one the Kaiser is about finished (I would say).

You said you expected I would know _____ your new _____ was. I would have known but I opened your letter first. Tell Cliff that I am waiting for an answer to that letter I wrote him. All the boys are hunting souvenirs and I expect I will look for a few myself when I get time. Tibby will get sore at Cliff for grabbing off Gladys, Clifton won't he? Ha Ha I am sending Tib a little note.

Notes from Helen Lewis Barshay regarding above letter to Ed (her father) from Robert:

Tib (sometimes Tibby) was the nickname for Albert for much of his life. or all of it. We children of Ed were told to call him Uncle Tib.

Before the hostilities ended for that war, Robert was among those who were gassed by the Germans, and he died of those effects after returning home from the war.

My father, Edward, was also in the army during that war. He was stationed at a hospital in this country, caring for patients afflicted by the Great flu epidemic, the worst in the 20 th century.

The Cliff mentioned in Robert's letter is my mother's older brother, Cliff, who was a great friend of my father (and apparently of his brothers).

Notes for CARL EDWARD LEWIS:

Once more with tragic suddenness, death has laid its heavy hand upon a young man of our community. With terrible swiftness, his death brought a feeling of deep sorrow and depression to our small village.

Carl Edward Lewis was the son of Mary and Fred Lewis, born at Rose Farm on January 29, 1920. On September 7, 1944 he was united in marriage to Miss Hallie Mae Dempster and to this union three children were born: Mary, eight, Carla, seven, and his small son, Fred, only five.

He leaves to mourn his untimely passing, his wife and three children. His mother, Mrs. Mary Lewis of Cleveland, three brothers, Robert of Crooksville, Route 2, Maynard and Ronald of Cleveland, and two sisters, Mrs. Paul (Jean) Gold and Mrs. Francis (Dona) Liddy, also of Cleveland and his aged maternal grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Sohrensens.

His father preceded him in death only a few months ago.

Carl was born and reared in this small community peopled with his relatives and friends. He settled to rear his own family among the environments that he loved most. Bidding farewell to his family, he hurried off to meet the tasks of his work-a-day life - that of providing for his family.

He literally died in the line of duty. Pausing as he did in his days occupation to find his way . . . .to chart his course . . . .to find which way to go in the pursuit of labor. A bit of irony marked his fate. It decreed the earthly course of this young man should terminate and, without highway map or hesitation, he went out to join the "Innumerable Caravan" from which no traveler ever returns. It was not without direction he moved on to eternal realms, charted and planned by the Great Designer. He is not dead, he is just away, living always in the hearts he loved.

By his patriotism and personal sacrifice, he gave his service to his country for three long years. To try to bring an unwilling world to the consideration of peace. His service record is most admirable. He received the "Unit Citation for bravery above and beyond the Call of Duty," the European-African Middle Eastern Service medal and the Good Conduct Medal. Carl was very modest about his Service Record, but it will glow with luster for his children. A brave soldier, a good son, a loving husband and father - his record closed.

Let fate do her worst . .

There are relics of joy,

Bright dreams of the past,

Which she cannot destroy.

They come in the night

Times of sorrow and care.

And bring back the features

That joy used to wear.

Long, long may my heart

With memories be filled;

Like the vase in which roses

Have once been distilled -

You make break, you may shatter

The vase if you will

But the scent of the roses

Will hang 'round it still.

(Obituary by Dorothy Lewis Ebert)

From Helen Lewis Barshey:

. . . it was about 1939, or perhaps 1940. Carl & Hallie Mae were probably not yet married, because I can remember when Carl was in the army that Ronald (Bobby's dad), my brother and I followed the 2 of them (Carl & Hallie Mae) into the woods and watched them kissing & kissing. They knew we were there, and I guess we were curious.

(Tricia) May I use that memory in the family file? I find Carl to be an interesting person and Hallie had to have been very strong. Carl is one of Bobby's favorite uncles and he didn't even get the chance to meet him. He listened to his dad and uncle's Bob and Maynard talk about Carl.

Last time Maynard had surgery here, Maynard was giving a play-by-play of a small fist fight between Fred and Carl. Fred made Carl wrap his hands and he kept saying . . "come on boy . . don't be afraid of the fist" "come on, hit me one good time" and Carl walloped him too! lol Maynard's face was priceless as he told the story. Maynard said "I thought for sure that Carl was in for it, but dad just wiped the blood away and said 'I asked for that'" :)

(Helen) Yes, you may use it in the family file. Carl was so loved by all of us. He was so strong and impressive. And handsome, too. And virile, and all of that.

Helen

European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal

Establishing Authority

The European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal was established by Executive Order 9265 signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt on November 6, 1942, and implemented by War Department Bulletin 56 (1942) and Navy Department General Orders Number 253 (1942).

Effective Dates

The European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal was awarded for qualifying service between December 7, 1941, and March 2, 1946.

Criteria

The European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal was awarded for qualifying service within the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater of Operations between December 7, 1941, and March 2, 1946, under any of the following conditions:

-- On permanent assignment within the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater; or,

-- For service in a passenger status or on temporary duty status for 30 consecutive days or 60 non-consecutive days; or,

-- For service in active combat in the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater of Operations against the enemy and awarded a combat decoration or furnished a certificate by the commanding general of a corps, higher unit, or independent force that the individual actually participated in combat.

Order of Precedence

The European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal was worn after the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal and before the World War II Victory Medal.

Devices

A. Bronze service stars: Bronze service stars were awarded by all services for participation in designated campaigns.

B. Bronze arrowhead: A bronze arrowhead device was awarded for participation in designated Army amphibious and airborne combat assaults (Note: only one bronze arrowhead could be worn on the ribbon).

Designer

The obverse of the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal was designed by Thomas Hudson Jones (1892-1969). The reverse was designed by Adolph A. Weinman (1870-1952).

First Recipient

The first recipient of the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal was General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who was presented his medal on July 24, 1947.

Description and Symbolism

Obverse: In the center of a bronze medallion one and a quarter inches in diameter, an LST landing craft is shown with troops landing under fire, with an airplane in the background below the words EUROPEAN-AFRICAN-MIDDLE EASTERN CAMPAIGN (in three lines).

This scene represents the major invasions of Africa and Europe during the Second World War and portrays elements of the Army, Navy, and Air Corps. The words describe the Theater of operations.

Reverse: In the center of a bronze medallion one and a quarter inches in diameter, an American bald eagle is shown perched on a rock. To the eagle's left, the dates 1941-1945 (in two lines); to the eagle's right, the words UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (in three lines).

The bald eagle is the national symbol and thereby represents the American people. It is perched on a solid rock which represents the firmness of resolve and strength of America in prosecuting the war, as indicated by the dates.

Ribbon: The ribbon to the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal has a broad center stripe of green that is bisected by blue, white and red pinstripes. The green is edged on the right by slightly wider pinstripes of green, white and red (green being the outmost color); to the left, the center stripe of green is edged by slightly wider pinstripes of white, black, and white. The outer edges of the ribbon are edged in brown.

The Secretary of War directed that ribbons for the area campaign medals were to employ separate colors to denote the theaters they represented. The theater color was to predominate in each ribbon and the common relationship among all of them was to be achieved by using colored stripes put in the same place on each of the ribbons. The central stripe of green (bisected by the blue, white and red pinstripes taken from the American Defense Service Medal) alludes to the vegetation of Europe. The brown edge stripes represent North Africa. The green, white and red pinstripes inside the right edge are the colors of Italy and the white, black and white pinstripes inside the left edge represent Germany, thus representing both of the Axis powers in Europe.
